Las Vegas woman was photographed speeding 22 times in short period

On June 20, 2008, Arizona Department of Public Safety Officers from the agency’s Photo Enforcement Program arrested 24-year-old Jennifer Bitton of Las Vegas, Nevada. During a 45-day period beginning in mid-May, Ms. Bitton was captured speeding by the DPS stationary photo enforcement cameras on the Loop 101 a record 22 times. Her highest recorded speed was 92 miles per hour.

Ms. Bitton, who was living in the Valley temporarily, was arrested at her parent’s north Scottsdale home and was booked into the Scottsdale City Jail for two counts of criminal speed, two counts of reckless driving and one count of endangerment. She was served citations for the remainder of the offenses.

“Photo enforcement exists to help slow people down thereby ensuring the safety of everyone on the road. Sadly some drivers have a no regard for the safety of others as they continue to recklessly speed,” said Roger Vanderpool director of the Arizona Department of Public Safety.
